

The logo consists of the letters E, N, T, P, and Y in a bold, sans-serif font. Each letter is contained within a light blue circle. The circles for E, N, T, and P are solid, while the circle for Y is dashed. The entire logo is set against a dark blue background with white stars.

ENTPY
